

Stats & Suns

Each month in 2020 we will gather at 300 Suns Brewery for a stats presentation and open discussion on the real estate market. The first one will be held on January 9th, 2020. Here we'll review the previous month, previous quarter and previous years' sales results. We will also take a peek at the upcoming month, quarter and prognostications for 2020. Please join me at 300 Suns Brewery at 335 1st Ave on Thursday, January 9th for about an hour starting at 3 pm. There will be plenty of time for questions, discussion, any announcements you want to make and refreshments (beer, soda or water).

This will be a monthly space to share current real estate market stats in a way everyone can understand and easily share with clients. It's a place to ask questions, gain understanding and share experiences. Agents who wish, can make announcements, talk about listings, ask about marketing and generally banter about in a relaxed atmosphere. We can fit about 50 in the room, but seating is limited to 30, so get there early. No rsvp necessary.

Somehow, I scheduled this right at the beginning of happy hour, so stick around for some food, a beer, to work on a deal or just hang with friends. Below is the schedule for the full year. Put it in your calendar now and plan to attend.
